

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

You can join ideas using conjunctions. The three most common conjunctions are:
and (used to join similar ideas)
but (used to join opposite ideas)
or (used to join alternatives or show uncertainty)

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket.

and

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

You can join ideas using conjunctions. The three most common conjunctions are:
and (used to join similar ideas)
but (used to join opposite ideas)
or (used to join alternatives or show uncertainty)

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket.

but

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

You can join ideas using conjunctions. The three most common conjunctions are:
and (used to join similar ideas)
but (used to join opposite ideas)
or (used to join alternatives or show uncertainty)

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket.

or

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

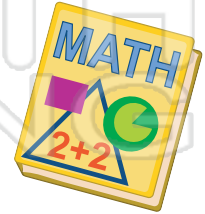

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket: and, but, or or. Write the new sentence on the back of the card or another piece of paper.

Dave is going to the restaurant. Sandra is going to the restaurant.

I like reading. I don't like math.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Mom wants to go out to dinner. Dad doesn't feel well.

The author wrote a popular book. She made it into a screenplay.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket: and, but, or or. Write the new sentence on the back of the card or another piece of paper.

That dog might be a husky. It could be a malamute.

My brother rode his bike. I walked.

Go
ic

Te

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

e.

Mary went shopping.
Mary did her homework.

You could cut the lawn.
You could do nothing.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket: and, but, or or. Write the new sentence on the back of the card or another piece of paper.

Jackie laughed loudly.
Jimmy laughed loudly.

Mike likes to go to Tom's house. Mike does not like to go to Sam's house.

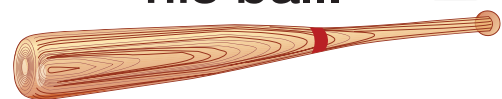

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Do your homework.
Do not rush.

James picked up his bat. James picked up his ball.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which conjunction is best to join the sentences and place the card in the appropriate basket: and, but, or or. Write the new sentence on the back of the card or another piece of paper.

Nick plays cards with Leah. Nick plays cards with Dan.

My brother likes to skateboard. I don't like to skateboard.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Mom went to the grocery store. Mom bought food for dinner.

We can keep our old truck. We can buy a new van.

