

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read the cause or effect. Fill in the missing portion. You may use reference materials or the Web to find the answers.

Cause

Effect

On April 19, 1775, American minutemen and British soldiers fought a battle in Lexington, Massachusetts.

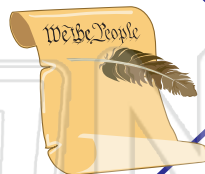

In 1776, America declared it was free of Great Britain's control with the

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

In 1789, the U.S. Constitution was written.

These first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution guarantee what U.S. citizens can do and say.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read an article. Use it to fill in the graphic organizer.

Cause Effect

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

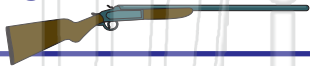

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read the cause or effect. Fill in the missing portion. You may use reference materials or the Web to find the answers.

Cause

Effect

On April 19, 1775, American minutemen and British soldiers fought a battle in Lexington, Massachusetts.

This started the American Revolution and was the “shot heard ‘round the world.”

In 1776, America declared it was free of Great Britain’s control with the

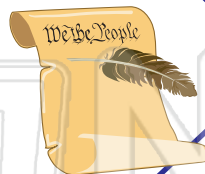

This document allowed the Americans to make a treaty with the French and get their help in fighting the American Revolution,

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

In 1789, the U.S. Constitution was written.

It set up the three branches of the federal government that are still in force today.

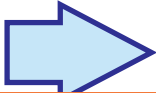

The Bill of Rights was made law in 1791.

These first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution guarantee what U.S. citizens can do and say.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read an article. Use it to fill in the graphic organizer.

Cause	Effect
 Answers will vary.	 Answers will vary.

 PREVIEW Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet
