

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read each sentence. Add the ending punctuation mark. Then, identify the type of sentence. Use D for declarative, C for command/imperative, I for interrogative, and E for exclamatory.

I

1. Who made the brownies for our bake sale ?

2. Stand under the arch _____

3. Derrick lost his shoe in the swamp _____

4. The deadline is July 31 _____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

11. Hurry up, Tracy _____

12. We bought Dad a grill for Father's day _____

13. Eat this soup _____

14. That's so gross _____

15. Will Tessa meet us at the dock _____

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read a short story. Identify two examples of each type of sentence. Write the sentences in the appropriate spot on this graphic organizer.

Story title: _____

Author: _____

Exclamatory

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Interrogative

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read each sentence. Add the ending punctuation mark. Then, identify the type of sentence. Use D for declarative, C for command/imperative, I for interrogative, and E for exclamatory.

I 1. Who made the brownies for our bake sale ?

C 2. Stand under the arch .

D 3. Derrick lost his shoe in the swamp .

D 4. The deadline is July 31 .

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

D 11. Hurry up, Tracy !

D 12. We bought Dad a grill for Father's day .

C 13. Eat this soup .

E 14. That's so gross !

I 15. Will Tessa meet us at the dock ?

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Read a short story. Identify two examples of each type of sentence. Write the sentences in the appropriate spot on this graphic organizer.

Story title: _____ Answers will vary.

Author: _____

Exclamatory

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Interrogative