

PREFIXES

What is a Prefix?

A prefix is any letter or group of letters that is added to the front of a base word to change the meaning.

Here is a list of some prefixes that change the meaning of a word.

The prefix re- means to do again. Wrap changes to rewrap.

The prefix un- means not, or the opposite. Happy changes to unhappy.

The

The

The

The

The

Try

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Add a prefix to 'try' to make a word that means try again.

Add a prefix to 'kind' to make a word that means not kind.

Add a prefix to 'agree' to make a word that means the opposite of agree.