INFERENCES

What are Inferences?

Making inferences is determining facts and meaning that the author does not directly state.

Example:

Emma went to work with her Mom on Friday. She played with her Mom's badge and even got to turn on the red and blue lights and the siren in her Mom's car.

The fact that Emma's Mom has a badge and a car with sirens and red and blue lights gives us a good idea that Emma's Mom is a police offic_____ , we _____

Try _____

The _____ m turn_____ was_____

You can infer:

a] They were having a surprise party for their Dad.
b] Their Dad was sad.
c] Their Dad was late for work.
d] Their Dad liked ice cream.