NARRATIVE TEXT

What is Narrative Writing?

Writing that tells a story is known as narrative writing. A narrative that tells a story based on imagined events is known as a fictional narrative.

Elements

The characters, setting, and plot make up the elements of a story.

> Characters-the people involved in the plot of a narrative

> Set

> Plo

Technic

- For suggesting eve

-

- Fla story to tell the

-

- When characters speak in fictional narratives, it is called dialogue.

-

- When a story's ending is unexpected, it is known as a surprise ending.

Try This!

1] Could anyone even guess that 13-year old Robert would record his own CD at age 18?

This sentence is an example of foreshadowing.
a] true
b] false

2] This sentence is an example of flashback.

It had all begun when Nadia, now a teenager, had started her first day of Kindergarten.
a] true
b] false

3] Choose
An Iroquo   ugh the ice
on the sh

a] An Iro
b] the ice
c] the sh
d] Lake C

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet