

THE GREAT DEPRESSION

What was the Great Depression?

In the 1920's, the United States was in good economic shape. World War I created a need for more goods and the citizens had money to pay for the goods. People were also investing money in the stock market and the economy was doing well.

In 1929, the stock market crashed and the economy went into a deep depression.

Other countries were also in a depression.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

President Roosevelt wanted to help the American people and save the economy. He created the New Deal to do this. The New Deal programs helped Americans get back on their feet. The New Deal created jobs and social programs to help people who needed them.