

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Match each of the following terms to its definition:

Adaptation

Incomplete Metamorphosis

Chrysalis

Embryo

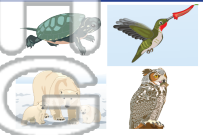

Caterpillar

Gills

Environment

Complete metamorphosis

1. _____ - a trait or characteristic that helps a living thing survive in its environment ; an example is a turtle's hard shell which serves as a defense against hungry predators

2. _____ - the larva of a butterfly or moth; it may be hairy or spiny to deter predators

3. _____ cycle; en

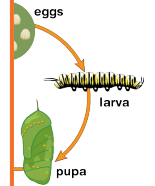

4. _____ Pupa, an

5. _____ plant in t

PREVIEW
Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

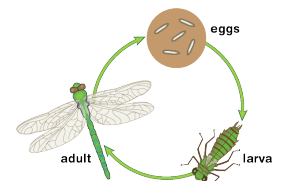

6. _____ - everything around an organism; it is made up of living and nonliving things in an area

7. _____ - an organ of animals that live in water that is used to breath oxygen dissolved in the water; tadpoles use gills to breathe underwater

8. _____ - insect development life cycle with three stages: Egg, Larva, and Adult

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Match each of the following terms to its definition:

Adaptation

Incomplete Metamorphosis

Chrysalis

Embryo

Caterpillar

Gills

Environment

Complete metamorphosis

1. Adaptation - a trait or characteristic that helps a living thing survive in its environment ; an example is a turtle's hard shell which serves as a defense against hungry predators

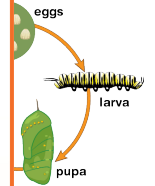

2. Caterpillar - the larva of a butterfly or moth; it may be hairy or spiny to deter predators

3. Chrysalis - the pupal stage of an insect; it is a protective case for the developing adult

4. Complete metamorphosis - a four-stage process of development: Egg, Larva, Pupa, and Adult

5. Embryo - the early stage of development of an animal, from the fertilized egg to the hatching of the young

PREVIEW
Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

6. Environment - everything around an organism; it is made up of living and nonliving things in an area

7. Gills - an organ of animals that live in water that is used to breathe oxygen dissolved in the water; tadpoles use gills to breathe underwater

8. Incomplete Metamorphosis - insect development life cycle with three stages: Egg, Larva, and Adult

