

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A comma is used after the greeting and the closing in a friendly letter.

2 A comma is needed at the end of a question.

3 Where does a comma belong in this sentence?
Jennifer may I have a piece

4 What is wrong in this sentence?
Grandma will you take me to Rochester New York?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7
A The teacher said I have a surprise for you today.
B The teacher said, "I have a surprise," for you today.
C The "Teacher said I have a surprise for you," today.
D The teacher said, "I have a surprise for you today."

A Watch out for falling rocks said Tim.
B "Watch out" for falling rocks said Tim.
C "Watch out for falling rocks," said Tim.
D Watch out for falling rocks, "Said Tim"

9 Which shows correct use of quotation marks?
A I don't like soup said Dad. May I have tea instead?
B "I don't like soup," said Dad. "May I have tea instead?"
C "I don't like soup, said Dad. May I have tea instead?"
D "I don't like soup said Dad." May I have tea instead?

10 Every sentence begins with a capital letter.

A true
B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A comma is used after the greeting and the closing in a friendly letter.

A true B false

2 A comma is needed at the end of a question.

A true B false

3 Where does a comma belong in this sentence?
Jennifer may I have a piece

4 What is wrong in this sentence?
Grandma will you take me to Rochester New York?

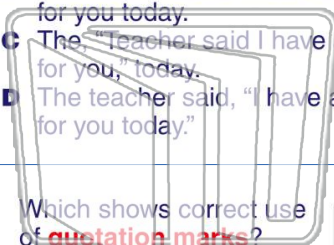

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A The teacher said I have a surprise for you today.
B The teacher said, "I have a surprise," for you today.
C The "Teacher said I have a surprise for you," today.
D The teacher said, "I have a surprise for you today."

A Watch out for falling rocks said Tim.
B "Watch out" for falling rocks said Tim.
C "Watch out for falling rocks," said Tim.
D Watch out for falling rocks, "Said Tim"

9 Which shows correct use of quotation marks?

A I don't like soup said Dad. May I have tea instead?
B "I don't like soup," said Dad. "May I have tea instead?"
C "I don't like soup, said Dad. May I have tea instead?"
D "I don't like soup said Dad." May I have tea instead?

10 Every sentence begins with a capital letter.

A true
B false

