

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Combine the choppy sentences to make one better sentence. Use a conjunction in each sentence. If there is a sentence on both sides of the conjunction, add a comma in front of the conjunction.

Choppy: Terri is going on the field trip. Mason can't go.

Better: Terri is going on the field trip, but Mason can't go.

1. Choppy : Each day Pedro eats a banana. He eats an orange. He eats walnuts too.

Better: _____

2. C

PREVIEW

4. C

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

5. Choppy : The dog might be a husky. It could be a malamute.

Better: _____

6. Choppy : Gavin had planned to go ice skating. There was a snowstorm.

Better: _____

ANSWER KEY

Combine the choppy sentences to make one better sentence. Use a conjunction in each sentence. If there is a sentence on both sides of the conjunction, add a comma in front of the conjunction.

Choppy: Terri is going on the field trip. Mason can't go.

Better: Terri is going on the field trip, but Mason can't go.

1. Choppy : Each day Pedro eats a banana. He eats an orange. He eats walnuts too.

Better: Each day Pedro eats a banana, an orange, and walnuts.

2. Ch

Be

3. Ch

Be

PREVIEW

4. Ch

Be

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

5. Choppy : The dog might be a husky. It could be a malamute.

Better: The dog might be a husky or a malamute.

6. Choppy : Gavin had planned to go ice skating. There was a snowstorm.

Better: Gavin had planned to go ice skating, but there was a snowstorm.

