

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Betty's dad collected model race cars. He kept them in cases. Betty and her friends played with them. A door broke off! Betty put the broken car back in its box. She hoped her father wouldn't notice. Betty is _____.

A clever C untrustworthy
B smart D funny

2 Kelly spent all weekend at the track. She was training for the big race. On Monday, she was back at the track, ready to run the race. There was a big crowd of people. Kelly suddenly felt nervous. What is the setting of this story?

A Kelly's house C a dance floor
B the track D a hiking trail

3 At the airport many bags look alike. You should check the tags before you leave the airport. What might happen if you

4 Sam entered a talent contest. He was going to perform magic tricks. He practiced them over and over. Then he

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 one, she said, "Thank you. I will return it tomorrow." According to this story, Jenn seems to be _____.

A forgetful C proud
B polite D nervous

8 dad was tired and probably lost. The map was not helpful so they could not find the hotel. What is the setting for this story?

A a train C a car or van
B a hotel D school

9 A teacher borrowed an overhead projector from another teacher. She asked Annie and Mary to carefully return it. As they pushed it down the hall, the projector slipped off the stand and smashed on the floor. What should the girls do next?

A Blame each other.
B Tell the teacher the truth.
C Fix it themselves.
D Pretend it never happened.

10 The coach said, "Count off by twos. The even numbers will be on the field. The odd numbers will be at bat." What game were they going to play?

A checkers C square dancing
B basketball D softball

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Betty's dad collected model race cars. He kept them in cases. Betty and her friends played with them. A door broke off! Betty put the broken car back in its box. She hoped her father wouldn't notice. Betty is _____.

A clever C untrustworthy
B smart D funny

2 Kelly spent all weekend at the track. She was training for the big race. On Monday, she was back at the track, ready to run the race. There was a big crowd of people. Kelly suddenly felt nervous. What is the setting of this story?

A Kelly's house C a dance floor
B the track D a hiking trail

3 At the airport many bags look alike. You should check the tags before you leave the airport. What might happen if you _____?

4 Sam entered a talent contest. He was going to perform magic tricks. He practiced them over and over. Then he went onstage. He began to tremble _____.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 one, she said, "Thank you. I will return it tomorrow." According to this story, Jenn seems to be _____.

A forgetful C proud
B polite D nervous

8 dad was tired and probably lost. The map was not helpful so they could not find the hotel. What is the setting for this story?

A a train C a car or van
B a hotel D school

9 A teacher borrowed an overhead projector from another teacher. She asked Annie and Mary to carefully return it. As they pushed it down the hall, the projector slipped off the stand and smashed on the floor. What should the girls do next?

A Blame each other.
B Tell the teacher the truth.
C Fix it themselves.
D Pretend it never happened.

10 The coach said, "Count off by twos. The even numbers will be on the field. The odd numbers will be at bat." What game were they going to play?

A checkers C square dancing
B basketball D softball