

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

Mark laid in his bed the entire day. His mom made him chicken soup for lunch. His trash can was overflowing with tissues. He hoped that tomorrow he would be able to go to school.

You can infer that _____

- A Mark is happy
- B Mark is lonely
- C Mark is sick
- D Mark is funny

2

Simon waited in the line. He was hot and his throat was dry. He could hardly wait to get to the front of the line. He was so thirsty that he wished everyone in front of him would hurry up.

You can infer that Simon is in line at _____

- A a grocery store
- B a movie
- C a water fountain
- D a zoo

3

Britney's favorite socks were missing. She looked for them around the house. She quickly found them. They were right next to the thief who had his tail tucked between his legs.

4

Haley woke up and noticed the sun peering through her window. She was excited to go to school. She stretched and headed downstairs for something to eat.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

When the timer went off, she pulled out the dessert and set it on the potholder to cool. When it finally cooled, she iced it with her Mom's favorite icing.

You can infer that Greta baked _____

- A a turkey
- B a cake
- C an ice cream sandwich
- D pudding

10

Even though they were disappointed with the final score, the team had fun and enjoyed the game anyway.

You can infer that _____

- A Ethan's team won
- B Ethan played basketball
- C Ethan's team lost
- D Ethan didn't like to win

9

Molly had them all lined up on her bedroom shelf. Each one was given to her for different reasons: for winning, for being a good sport, for participating in the activity. She loved how each one reminded her of a special event.

You can infer that Molly had _____ on her shelf.

- A cards
- B trophies
- C pictures
- D stuffed

Andrew could barely keep his eyes open in class. He knew he should have gone to bed earlier the night before, but he decided to stay up late to watch a movie.

You can infer that _____

- A Andrew is funny
- B Andrew is disrespectful
- C Andrew is annoying
- D Andrew is tired

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Mark laid in his bed the entire day. His mom made him chicken soup for lunch. His trash can was overflowing with tissues. He hoped that tomorrow he would be able to go to school.

You can infer that _____

- A Mark is happy
- B Mark is lonely
- C Mark is sick
- D Mark is funny

2 Simon waited in the line. He was hot and his throat was dry. He could hardly wait to get to the front of the line. He was so thirsty that he wished everyone in front of him would hurry up.

You can infer that Simon is in line at _____

- A a grocery store
- B a movie
- C a water fountain
- D a zoo

3 Britney's favorite socks were missing. She looked for them around the house. She quickly found them. They were right next to the thief who had his tail tucked between his legs.

4 Haley woke up and noticed the sun peering through her window. She was excited to go to school. She stretched and headed downstairs for something to eat.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

When the timer went off, she pulled out the dessert and set it on the potholder to cool. When it finally cooled, she iced it with her Mom's favorite icing.

You can infer that Greta baked _____

- A a turkey
- B a cake
- C an ice cream sandwich
- D pudding

Even though they were disappointed with the final score, the team had fun and enjoyed the game anyway.

You can infer that _____

- A Ethan's team won
- B Ethan played basketball
- C Ethan's team lost
- D Ethan didn't like to win

9

Molly had them all lined up on her bedroom shelf. Each one was given to her for different reasons: for winning, for being a good sport, for participating in the activity. She loved how each one reminded her of a special event.

You can infer that Molly had _____ on her shelf.

- A cards
- B trophies
- C pictures
- D stuffed

10

Andrew could barely keep his eyes open in class. He knew he should have gone to bed earlier the night before, but he decided to stay up late to watch a movie.

You can infer that _____

- A Andrew is funny
- B Andrew is disrespectful
- C Andrew is annoying
- D Andrew is tired

