

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Purpose

Summarization

Questions

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Book Title _____

READING COMPREHENSION:
STRATEGIES

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Primary Examples

Book Title: Elena's Serenade by Campbell Geeslin

Summarization

Elena pretends she is a boy and runs away to become a glass blower. She helps everyone she meets along the way with her whistling. Her whistling helps her to be a wonderful glass blower. Her father lets her become a glass blower with him.

Questions

- Why did Elena want to become a glass blower so badly?
- How did Elena learn to whistle so well?
- Why couldn't girls become glass blowers?

Clarification

This is a fantasy story. Animals don't talk.

Predictions

- Elena will become a famous glassblower.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

Clarification

Only kids and other animals can hear Ralph talk.

Predictions

- Ralph's family will get rides on his motorcycle.
- Ralph will have lots more adventures on his motorcycle.