

Author's Purpose/Point of View

ELA
E

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When authors write to _____, their intention is for readers to laugh and enjoy their writing.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

6 Jenny wrote an article explaining her opinion on why everyone should buy a laptop computer instead of a desktop computer.

The purpose of her article is to _____.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

2 When an author writes to _____, their goal is to provide information to readers about a particular topic or event.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

7 Sam rode his bike to his friend Carl's house.

3 Will went to his teacher's office. This sentence is written in the _____ point of view.

first

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4 Which of these sentences is written in the first person point of view?

- a. The dog barked loudly.
- b. I borrowed a book from Pam.
- c. The man painted his garage.

9 Jim Bowman wrote a story about Sammy the Silly Slithering Snake.

The purpose of the book is to _____.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

5 I went to the store to buy some bread.

This sentence is written in the _____ person point of view.

first

second

third

10 Which of these sentences is written in the third person point of view?

- a. My sock has a hole in it.
- b. Ray decided to go after all.
- c. I was very hungry.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When authors write to _____, their intention is for readers to laugh and enjoy their writing.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

6 Jenny wrote an article explaining her opinion on why everyone should buy a laptop computer instead of a desktop computer.

The purpose of her article is to _____.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

2 When an author writes to _____, their goal is to provide information to readers about a particular topic or event.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

7 Sam rode his bike to his friend Carl's house.

3 Will went to his teacher's office. This sentence is written in the _____ point of view.

first

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4 Which of these sentences is written in the first person point of view?

- a. The dog barked loudly.
- b. I borrowed a book from Pam.
- c. The man painted his garage.

9 Jim Bowman wrote a story about Sammy the Silly Slithering Snake.

The purpose of the book is to _____.

- a. inform
- b. persuade
- c. entertain

5 I went to the store to buy some bread.

This sentence is written in the _____ person point of view.

first

second

third

10 Which of these sentences is written in the third person point of view?

- a. My sock has a hole in it.
- b. Ray decided to go after all.
- c. I was very hungry.