

Author's Purpose & Point of View

ELA
C-E

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When authors write to _____, their intention is for readers to laugh and enjoy their writing.

Check the answer.

- inform
- persuade
- entertain

6 Jim wrote a story about Sammy the Silly Slithering Snake.

Underline the author's purpose.

inform persuade entertain

7 Which of these sentences is written in the third person point of view?

Circle the answer letter.

a. Henry hid his candy in his drawer.

2 When an author writes to _____, his goal is to convince readers that his ideas and suggested actions are true and valid.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

3 V
h re

4 This sentence is written in the _____ person point of view. Circle the answer.

1st 2nd 3rd

inform persuade entertain scare

5 Write a sentence in the third person point of view.

10 Which sentence is written in the first person point of view?

- a. It rained all day.
- b. Mary loves to read.
- c. The teacher said I did well on the test.

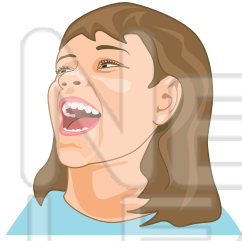

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When authors write to _____, their intention is for readers to laugh and enjoy their writing.

Check the answer.

- inform
- persuade
- entertain

6 Jim wrote a story about Sammy the Silly Slithering Snake.

Underline the author's purpose.

- inform persuade entertain

7 Which of these sentences is written in the third person point of view?

Circle the answer letter.

- a. Henry hid his candy in his drawer.

2 When an author writes to _____, his goal is to convince readers that his ideas and suggested actions are true and valid.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

3 V
h
re

4 This sentence is written in the _____ person point of view. Circle the answer.

- 1st
- 2nd
- 3rd

- inform persuade
- entertain scare

5 Write a sentence in the third person point of view.

open-ended

10 Which sentence is written in the first person point of view?

- a. It rained all day.
- b. Mary loves to read.
- c. The teacher said I did well on the test.

