

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

First the people built houses. Then they began to till the land. They planted their crops and waited for the harvest time.

A question and answer
 B compare and contrast
 C events given in the order they happened
 D step-by-step instructions

2 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

Why did the railroad become a part of our transportation system? People were beginning to move west and they wanted to get there as quickly as possible.

A question and answer
 B compare and contrast
 C events given in the order they happened
 D step-by-step instructions

3 What is the organizational structure of this information?

Reasons to buy a new car	Reasons to buy a used car
--------------------------	---------------------------

4 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

The animal kingdom and the plant kingdom are two broad categories of

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A Chapter 1
 B Index
 C Inside of the front cover
 D Chapter 3 summary

the Gold Rush?

A California's Economy, 1990-2000
 B Airline Travel to the West Coast
 C The Clothing of California
 D Westward Expansion

9 Which chapter would contain information on nouns?

A Car Parts
 B Taking Apart your Stereo
 C Parts of Speech
 D Bipartisan Bills

10 This Table of Contents most likely came from which of these books?

In the Beginning	1
Types of Cloth	3
Uses of Cloth, 1900-1950	10
Uses of Cloth, 1950-2000	15

A The History of the Sewing Machine
 B Clothing: the Future of our Jeans
 C A History of Cloth
 D Cotton Is In

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

First the people built houses. Then they began to till the land. They planted their crops and waited for the harvest time.

A question and answer
 B compare and contrast
 C events given in the order they happened
 D step-by-step instructions

2 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

Why did the railroad become a part of our transportation system? People were beginning to move west and they wanted to get there as quickly as possible.

A question and answer
 B compare and contrast
 C events given in the order they happened
 D step-by-step instructions

3 What is the organizational structure of this information?

Reasons to buy a new car	Reasons to buy a used car
--------------------------	---------------------------

4 What is the organizational structure of this passage?

The animal kingdom and the plant kingdom are two broad categories of

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

5

A Chapter 1
 B Index
 C Inside of the front cover
 D Chapter 3 summary

6

the Gold Rush?

A California's Economy, 1990-2000
 B Airline Travel to the West Coast
 C The Clothing of California
 D Westward Expansion

9 Which chapter would contain information on nouns?

A Car Parts
 B Taking Apart your Stereo
 C Parts of Speech
 D Bipartisan Bills

10 This Table of Contents most likely came from which of these books?

In the Beginning	1
Types of Cloth	3
Uses of Cloth, 1900-1950	10
Uses of Cloth, 1950-2000	15

A The History of the Sewing Machine
 B Clothing: the Future of our Jeans
 C A History of Cloth
 D Cotton Is In