

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When a poet repeats the first consonant sounds in words, it is called _____.

- a. alliteration
- b. onomatopoeia
- c. personification

6 Circle the missing word to demonstrate alliteration.

The blue ball _____ by the building.

- rolled
- bounced
- fell

2 Circle the onomatopoeia word in the sentence below.

I heard the bee buzz in my ear.

7 _____ is the act of giving an animal or object qualities of a person.

- a. Alliteration
- b. Onomatopoeia

3

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4

- b. Onomatopoeia
- c. Personification

- a. simile
- b. metaphor
- c. rhyme

5 Circle the rhyming words in this poem.

A little song was only heard
Coming from a beautiful bird.

10 Underline the two things being compared in this sentence.

The girl felt as fresh as a daisy when she woke up.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When a poet repeats the first consonant sounds in words, it is called _____.

- a. alliteration
- b. onomatopoeia
- c. personification

6 Circle the missing word to demonstrate alliteration.

The blue ball _____ by the building.

rolled bounced fell

2 Circle the onomatopoeia word in the sentence below.

I heard the bee buzz in my ear.

7 _____ is the act of giving an animal or object qualities of a person.

- a. Alliteration
- b. Onomatopoeia

3

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4

- b. Onomatopoeia
- c. Personification

- a. simile
- b. metaphor
- c. rhyme

5 Circle the rhyming words in this poem.

A little song was only heard
Coming from a beautiful bird.

10 Underline the two things being compared in this sentence.

The girl felt as fresh as a daisy when she woke up.

