

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What is the purpose of this type of writing?

Flowers for sale! $10 a dozen! Best in the city!

- A to explain
- B to describe
- C to persuade
- D to express feelings

2 What is the purpose of this type of writing?

First put in the butter, sugar and eggs. Next add flour, and baking powder. Roll the dough into balls and bake for 15 minutes.

- A to explain a process
- B to describe a scene
- C to persuade
- D to express feelings

3 What is the purpose of this type of writing?

The house was white with black shutters.

4 What is the purpose of this type of writing?

Once upon a time there lived a little boy.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet large). Stack them on top of each other. Add eyes, nose, and mouth. Use sticks to make the arms.

7

The main purpose of this writing is to persuade.

- A true
- B false

10

- A I love the gift you bought for me!
- B Take a right turn after the store. Then make a sharp left.
- C The fairy flitted from tree to tree, hiding, dancing, spinning.
- D Perhaps you will like the red one better.

9

Which choice is written to persuade?

- A Hold the racket loosely, keeping your knees bent slightly.
- B Put in a few stones. Add the dirt, plant the seeds, and water.
- C We have the best bread in town! Come, taste, and buy!
- D As the sun came up, the town slowly began to stir.

Fiction, such as novels and stories, is usually written to explain a process.

- A true
- B false

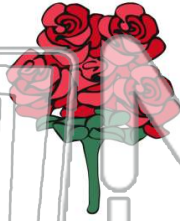

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

What is the purpose of this type of writing?

Flowers for sale! $10 a dozen! Best in the city!

- A to explain
- B to describe
- C to persuade
- D to express feelings

2

What is the purpose of this type of writing?

First put in the butter, sugar and eggs. Next add flour, and baking powder. Roll the dough into balls and bake for 15 minutes.

- A to explain a process
- B to describe a scene
- C to persuade
- D to express feelings

3

What is the purpose of this type of writing?

The house was white with black shutters.

4

What is the purpose of this type of writing?

Once upon a time there lived a little boy.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet large). Stack them on top of each other. Add eyes, nose, and mouth. Use sticks to make the arms.

7

The main purpose of this writing is to persuade.

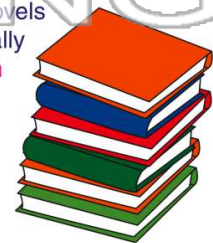

- A true
- B false

10

Fiction, such as novels and stories, is usually written to explain a process.

- A true
- B false

9

Which choice is written to persuade?

- A Hold the racket loosely, keeping your knees bent slightly.
- B Put in a few stones. Add the dirt, plant the seeds, and water.
- C We have the best bread in town! Come, taste, and buy!
- D As the sun came up, the town slowly began to stir.