

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When gathering information from other sources, it is alright to copy as many as four paragraphs directly into your report. As long as it is less than four paragraphs, you do not have to cite it.

- A true
- B false

2 Genre in Children's Literature
I. Traditional Literature
II. Poetry
III. Realism
This is an example of _____.

- A an editorial
- B a journal entry
- C a poem
- D an outline

3 Making an outline is a way to _____.

4 "Put away your Math books, get out your Science books, and be sure you have a pencil on your desk," called the teacher.

5

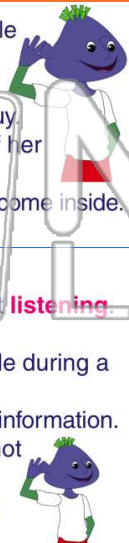

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A Troy was sitting at the table reading the newspaper.
- B Mitch was jotting down groceries he wanted to buy.
- C Sara was waiting to see if her name would be called.
- D Jon was calling his dog to come inside.

- A Talk when other people are talking.
- B Only talk about your own opinions.
- C Consider your audience when speaking to a group.
- D Never back down when talking about your ideas.

9 Choose the correct rule about listening.

- A Do not listen to other people during a debate.
- B Only listen to the first bit of information.
- C Listen for instructions but not for information.
- D Listen carefully so you can catch false claims.

10 Choose the correct rule about writing.

- A Consider punctuation and grammar.
- B Do not state your purpose when writing.
- C It is rude to send a thank you note.
- D Revising usually makes a paper more confusing.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When gathering information from other sources, it is alright to copy as many as four paragraphs directly into your report. As long as it is less than four paragraphs, you do not have to cite it.

- A true
- B false

2 Genre in Children's Literature
I. Traditional Literature
II. Poetry
III. Realism
This is an example of _____.

- A an editorial
- B a journal entry
- C a poem
- D an outline

3 Making an outline is a way to _____.

4 "Put away your Math books, get out your Science books, and be sure you have a pencil on your desk," called the teacher.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A Troy was sitting at the table reading the newspaper.
B Mitch was jotting down groceries he wanted to buy.
C Sara was waiting to see if her name would be called.
D Jon was calling his dog to come inside.

- A Talk when other people are talking.
- B Only talk about your own opinions.
- C Consider your audience when speaking to a group.
- D Never back down when talking about your ideas.

9 Choose the correct rule about listening.

- A Do not listen to other people during a debate.
- B Only listen to the first bit of information.
- C Listen for instructions but not for information.
- D Listen carefully so you can catch false claims.

10 Choose the correct rule about writing.

- A Consider punctuation and grammar.
- B Do not state your purpose when writing.
- C It is rude to send a thank you note.
- D Revising usually makes a paper more confusing.

