

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Technology, biology, and psychology are all subjects people study so anthropology is also a subject to be studied.

- A true
  - B false
- True or false?

2 As the hikers walked through the desert, they did not see any animals or plants in this desolate place. What does desolate mean?

- A sandy
- B barren
- C dry
- D lovely

3 The people in the funeral procession followed the minister somberly into the cemetery. What does somberly mean?

4 After being through so many ordeals, the astronauts on the troubled shuttle were glad to be back on earth.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 spandrels, hand-painted faces, and crystal bowls were among the splendors displayed at the museum. What is a splendor?

- A something old and used
- B an exhibit
- C something magnificent
- D a display

8 Hamburgers and salads, but worms and dirt are not. Edible means something that can be eaten.

- A true
- B false

9 Kittens are inquisitive so they play with strings, smell shoes, and climb up curtains. Being inquisitive means being young.

- A true
- B false

10 The dulcimer, banjo, and fiddle are all popular among people who live in the Appalachian mountains. So a dulcimer must be _____.

- A a way to hunt and fish
- B a stick for walking up hills
- C a musical instrument
- D something made of coal

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Technology, biology, and psychology are all subjects people study so anthropology is also a subject to be studied.

- A true
  - B false
- True or false?

2 As the hikers walked through the desert, they did not see any animals or plants in this desolate place. What does desolate mean?

- A sandy
- B barren
- C dry
- D lovely

3 The people in the funeral procession followed the minister somberly into the cemetery. What does somberly mean?

4 After being through so many ordeals, the astronauts on the troubled shuttle were glad to be back on earth.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 ...bells, hand-painted faces, and crystal bowls were among the splendors displayed at the museum. What is a splendor?

- A something old and used
- B an exhibit
- C something magnificent
- D a display

8 Hamburgers and sausages, but worms and dirt are not. Edible means something that can be eaten.

- A true
- B false

9 Kittens are inquisitive so they play with strings, smell shoes, and climb up curtains. Being inquisitive means being young.

- A true
- B false

10 The dulcimer, banjo, and fiddle are all popular among people who live in the Appalachian mountains. So a dulcimer must be _____.

- A a way to hunt and fish
- B a stick for walking up hills
- C a musical instrument
- D something made of coal