

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Welding is when you use something very hot to melt metal. This will allow you to make two pieces of metal adhere to one another. You might adhere by welding.

A icing and a cake
B a patch to a jacket
C new heels and a shoe
D a sign to a light post

2 The magenta or deep purple-red paint made the room seem dark and unfriendly. Magenta is _____.

A a deep color
B wallpaper
C a pale color
D paneling

3 The dog was frothing at the mouth as the animal control officer tried to catch it without being bitten. The officer knew _____.

4 The jury was instructed to abide by the rules as they made their decision about the woman's guilt or innocence.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Several hundred dancers and the principal said no because the last dance had ended up in too many fights. Those involved with the controversy agreed about everything.

A true
B false

word for friends, but everyone knew the signers didn't agree with one another. Compatriots would probably _____.

A never be seen in the same place
B give everything they had to the poor
C eat dinner together at a local tavern
D go to different places for vacation

9 The Baudelaires jumped when they saw a man wearing a black trench coat, dark glasses, and a wide brimmed hat. They knew they had encountered him before and should be wary. In this sentence, wary means _____.

A happy to see him
B surprised
C ready to go out
D on guard

10 Sugar and other things were rationed during the war because ships could not bring everything they once did to the ports. When something is rationed, people _____.

A have to do with limited amounts
B are glad to wait
C are able to get all they want
D want more sugar

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Welding is when you use something very hot to melt metal. This will allow you to make two pieces of metal adhere to one another. You might adhere by welding.

A icing and a cake
B a patch to a jacket
C new heels and a shoe
D a sign to a light post

2 The magenta or deep purple-red paint made the room seem dark and unfriendly. Magenta is _____.

A a deep color
B wallpaper
C a pale color
D paneling

3 The dog was frothing at the mouth as the animal control officer tried to catch it without being bitten. The officer knew _____.

4 The jury was instructed to abide by the rules as they made their decision about the woman's guilt or innocence.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Several hundred dancers and the principal said no because the last dance had ended up in too many fights. Those involved with the controversy agreed about everything.

A true
B false

8 _____ word for friends, but everyone knew the signers didn't agree with one another. Compatriots would probably _____.

A never be seen in the same place
B give everything they had to the poor
C eat dinner together at a local tavern
D go to different places for vacation

9 The Baudelaires jumped when they saw a man wearing a black trench coat, dark glasses, and a wide brimmed hat. They knew they had encountered him before and should be wary. In this sentence, wary means _____.

A happy to see him
B surprised
C ready to go out
D on guard

10 Sugar and other things were rationed during the war because ships could not bring everything they once did to the ports. When something is rationed, people _____.

A have to do with limited amounts
B are glad to wait
C are able to get all they want
D want more sugar

