

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 If you know the _____ of an unknown word, you are likely to be able to figure out the word's meaning.

- A root
- B rhyme
- C interjection
- D adjective

2 If you know that cor is a root word meaning heart, then what is the meaning of cordial in the following sentence?

When the governor visited our school, his greeting was very cordial.

- A The governor had a heart attack.
- B The governor's greeting was phony.
- C The governor's greeting was about keeping your heart healthy.
- D The governor's greeting was very sincere.

3 Cindy knew that magn was the root for great, so it was reasonable for her to assume that magnificent must mean

4 If you know that ped is the root for foot, then what does the word pedestrian mean in the following sentence?

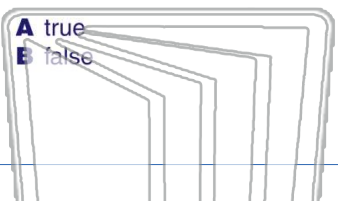

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 If you know the prefix pre- means you will be able to figure out the word and its meaning.

- A true
- B false

8 If you know that ex- means "out" and port must mean:

- A someone who died.
- B someone who is near death.
- C someone who will never die.
- D someone who has more than one life.

9 If geo is the root for earth, and -ist is the suffix meaning one who studies, the word geologist must mean:

- A one who studies around the world.
- B one who studies the earth.
- C one who studies weather.
- D one who studies people's habits on our earth.

10 If ex- is a prefix for out, and port is the root meaning carry, what does export mean in this sentence?

We export corn from our country to Russia.

- A receive
- B get
- C send
- D cancel

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 If you know the _____ of an unknown word, you are likely to be able to figure out the word's meaning.

- A root
- B rhyme
- C interjection
- D adjective

2 If you know that cor is a root word meaning heart, then what is the meaning of cordial in the following sentence?

When the governor visited our school, his greeting was very cordial.

- A The governor had a heart attack.
- B The governor's greeting was phony.
- C The governor's greeting was about keeping your heart healthy.
- D The governor's greeting was very sincere.

3 Cindy knew that magn was the root for great, so it was reasonable for her to assume that magnificent must mean

4 If you know that ped is the root for foot, then what does the word pedestrian mean in the following sentence?

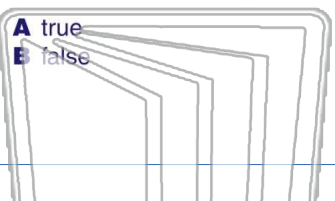

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 If you know the prefix pre- means you will be able to figure out the word and its meaning.

- A true
- B false

8 If you know the prefix pre- means you will be able to figure out the word and its meaning.

- A someone who died.
- B someone who is near death.
- C someone who will never die.
- D someone who has more than one life.

9 If geo is the root for earth, and -ist is the suffix meaning one who studies, the word geologist must mean:

- A one who studies around the world.
- B one who studies the earth.
- C one who studies weather.
- D one who studies people's habits on our earth.

10 If ex- is a prefix for out, and port is the root meaning carry, what does export mean in this sentence?

We export corn from our country to Russia.

- A receive
- B get
- C send
- D cancel

