

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 You get an email from your grandfather saying that he just won the lottery and is coming to see you on your birthday. He has always been a generous man and loves you very much. On your last birthday, he took you to Disneyland. What will grandpa bring this year?

A a check to pay for college
 B a new basketball and a shirt
 C nothing but a smile and a hug
 D his laundry and a dirty dog

2 You send an angry email to a friend accusing her of taking your necklace. You don't receive an answer. The next time you see your friend, she walks past you without saying hello. You might infer she is insulted.

A true
 B false

3 The children across the street are dressed in costumes. The sun is shining and flowers are blooming everywhere. One child is dressed like a bird and another looks like a

4 A man is working with clay and spinning it on a wheel. He is surrounded by teapots, vases, mugs, and bowls. The

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 hat. The inside of his black cape is red satin and his assistant is wearing a red sparkly dress. For his last trick, he pours milk into a jug and shakes it hard. What would happen next?

A The cape will disappear.
 B He will make his assistant vanish.
 C The assistant will leave.
 D The milk will pour out red.

When she comes back she doesn't want any food. She cleans her face and paws, then falls asleep in front of the heat vent. Where has she been?

A playing with another cat
 B hunting field mice
 C watching a bird's nest
 D chasing a feather

9 On the first screen of a game, there are creatures that stop the main character from moving around the board. On the second screen, the character can only move when the track is blue. On the third screen, there are fire breathing dragons to avoid. In this game _____.

A you can find out the weather and news
 B it teaches the player to add and subtract
 C every screen will have something to avoid
 D the track lights up as the character moves

10 A bear was seen going under a tangle of tree roots in December. The bear is not seen again until early spring. When the bear comes out, it is not alone. The bears go looking for food. What happened during the winter?

A The bear slept very soundly.
 B The bear found a friend during the winter.
 C The bear invited another bear inside.
 D The bear had cubs in the den.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 You get an email from your grandfather saying that he just won the lottery and is coming to see you on your birthday. He has always been a generous man and loves you very much. On your last birthday, he took you to Disneyland. What will grandpa bring this year?

- A a check to pay for college
- B a new basketball and a shirt
- C nothing but a smile and a hug
- D his laundry and a dirty dog

2 You send an angry email to a friend accusing her of taking your necklace. You don't receive an answer. The next time you see your friend, she walks past you without saying hello. You might infer she is insulted.

- A true
- B false

3 The children across the street are dressed in costumes. The sun is shining and flowers are blooming everywhere. One child is dressed like a bird and another looks like a

4 A man is working with clay and spinning it on a wheel. He is surrounded by teapots, vases, mugs, and bowls. The

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 hat. The inside of his black cape is red satin and his assistant is wearing a red sparkly dress. For his last trick, he pours milk into a jug and shakes it hard. What would happen next?

- A The cape will disappear.
- B He will make his assistant vanish.
- C The assistant will leave.
- D The milk will pour out red.

8 When she comes back she doesn't want any food. She cleans her face and paws, then falls asleep in front of the heat vent. Where has she been?

- A playing with another cat
- B hunting field mice
- C watching a bird's nest
- D chasing a feather

9 On the first screen of a game, there are creatures that stop the main character from moving around the board. On the second screen, the character can only move when the track is blue. On the third screen, there are fire breathing dragons to avoid. In this game _____.

- A you can find out the weather and news
- B it teaches the player to add and subtract
- C every screen will have something to avoid
- D the track lights up as the character moves

10 A bear was seen going under a tangle of tree roots in December. The bear is not seen again until early spring. When the bear comes out, it is not alone. The bears go looking for food. What happened during the winter?

- A The bear slept very soundly.
- B The bear found a friend during the winter.
- C The bear invited another bear inside.
- D The bear had cubs in the den.

