

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 _____ is language used by groups that have a similar interest such as a hockey team or the medical profession and is often only understood by members of that group.

A Email conventions
B Informal vocabulary
C Jargon
D Syntax

2 Using informal words or phrases is called _____ or slang.

A alliteration
B email conventions
C jargon
D colloquialism

3 Some colloquial terms are sometimes used only in a certain geographic region.

4 Knowing the _____ of email helps you to understand the choices to make when writing and to be a responsible

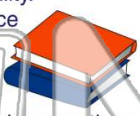

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Sustained silent reading is school jargon for:

A increasing one's reading ability.
B reading a book of your choice silently for a period of time.
C being tested on how many words you read per minute.
D reading silently, then answering questions about the book.

The word aced is a colloquialism meaning 'did well.'

A true
B false

9 When using email, cc means:

A the person to whom you are writing.
B a group of people to whom you are writing.
C a person(s) who is also receiving a copy of the email you are sending.
D the person who is writing to you.

10 When using email, bcc means you are relaying the email message to another person without the stated receiver of your email knowing.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 _____ is language used by groups that have a similar interest such as a hockey team or the medical profession and is often only understood by members of that group.

- A Email conventions
- B Informal vocabulary
- C Jargon
- D Syntax

2 Using informal words or phrases is called _____ or slang.

- A alliteration
- B email conventions
- C jargon
- D colloquialism

3 Some colloquial terms are sometimes used only in a certain geographic region.

4 Knowing the _____ of email helps you to understand the choices to make when writing and to be a responsible

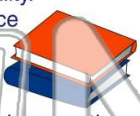

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Sustained silent reading is school jargon for:

- A increasing one's reading ability.
- B reading a book of your choice silently for a period of time.
- C being tested on how many words you read per minute.
- D reading silently, then answering questions about the book.

The word aced is a colloquialism meaning 'did well.'

- A true
- B false

True or false?

9 When using email, cc means:

- A the person to whom you are writing.
- B a group of people to whom you are writing.
- C a person(s) who is also receiving a copy of the email you are sending.
- D the person who is writing to you.

10 When using email, bcc means you are relaying the email message to another person without the stated receiver of your email knowing.

- A
- B