

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In which situation would you not use informal vocabulary?

- A talking on the phone with a friend
- B writing your cousin a letter
- C talking to the parents of the children you are babysitting
- D writing your brother an email

2 You don't have to use a salutation in an email; the receiver knows it was addressed to them by looking at the address to whom it was sent. This is proper email convention.

3 The baby was as cute as a button. This colloquialism means:

4 Sauté the vegetables before you prepare the demi-glace. This jargon is most likely to be

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 This is an example of _____.

- A alliteration
- B jargon
- C informal vocabulary
- D email convention

8 _____ the patient in the care of her teeth. Dr. Durinzi is using dental jargon with her assistant.

- A true
- B false

9 Jeff told his friend Sean, "Don't knock my report if you didn't get a better grade than me."

The word knock is a colloquialism for _____.

- A praise
- B repeat
- C criticize
- D push off the table

10 The restaurant manager told Katie that table six needed a bev nap.

The manager was using a slang version of restaurant jargon.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In which situation would you not use informal vocabulary?

- A talking on the phone with a friend
- B writing your cousin a letter
- C talking to the parents of the children you are babysitting
- D writing your brother an email

2 You don't have to use a salutation in an email; the receiver knows it was addressed to them by looking at the address to whom it was sent. This is proper email convention.

3 The baby was as cute as a button. This colloquialism means:

4 Sauté the vegetables before you prepare the demi-glace. This jargon is most likely to be

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 This is an example of _____.

- A alliteration
- B jargon
- C informal vocabulary
- D email convention

8 _____ the patient in the care of her teeth. Dr. Durinzi is using dental jargon with her assistant.

- A true
- B false

9 Jeff told his friend Sean, "Don't knock my report if you didn't get a better grade than me."

The word knock is a colloquialism for _____.

- A praise
- B repeat
- C criticize
- D push off the table

10 The restaurant manager told Katie that table six needed a bev nap.

The manager was using a slang version of restaurant jargon.

- A true
- B false

