Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 _____ happens when the author inserts an event that took place before the current setting of the story.

- A Foreshadowing
- B A flashback
- C An alliteration
- D Symbolism

2 _____ is when something is used to represent something else in a story.

- A Foreshadowing
- B A flashback
- C An alliteration
- D Symbolism

3 _____ is when the writer gives the reader clues or hints about what will be happening later in the story.

4 _____ is when the writer uses words with the same beginning sound.

5

7
given it to her when she was a girl. She could remember her 6th birthday...

The reader is about to read _____.

- A foreshadowing
- C an alliteration
- B a flashback
- D symbolism

cleared her throat and suggested all the kids meet at her house.

The author is using Sandy's cough to foreshadow something that will be important later in the story.

- A true
- B false

9 Using rain to represent death is an example of symbolism.

- A true
- B false

10 One way to include background on the intensity of a battle without having the story set on the battlefield is to use foreshadowing.
- A true
- B false

Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 _____ happens when the author inserts an event that took place before the current setting of the story.

A Foreshadowing
B A flashback
C An alliteration
D Symbolism

B

2 _____ is when something is used to represent something else in a story.

A Foreshadowing
B A flashback
C An alliteration
D Symbolism

D

3 _____ is when the writer gives the reader clues or hints about what will be happening later in the story.
4 _____ is when the writer uses words with the same beginning sound.

C

5

D

7 given it to her when she was a girl. She could remember her 6th birthday…

The reader is about to read _____.

A foreshadowing   C an alliteration
B a flashback   D symbolism

B

cleared her throat and suggested all the kids meet at her house.

The author is using Sandy's cough to foreshadow something that will be important later in the story.

A true
B false

A

9 Using rain to represent death is an example of symbolism.

A true
B false

A

10 One way to include background on the intensity of a battle without having the story set on the battlefield is to use foreshadowing.

A true
B false

B