

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 At one time, Mark Twain worked on a paddle wheeler sailing up and down the Mississippi River. Many of his stories take place near a river. He grew up near the Mississippi. In his biography, you would not expect to read about _____

A why Mark Twain wrote Tom Sawyer
B how Mark Twain bought a river boat
C where Mark Twain grew up
D how Mark Twain hated rivers

2 Every Saturday night, Tanisha babysits for her aunt. Her aunt and uncle play bingo at their church. Tanisha wants to go to a party next Saturday night. What will Tanisha's aunt do on Saturday?

A go to the party with Tanisha
B take Tanisha to Bingo
C find another niece to babysit
D make Tanisha's uncle babysit

3 Crabs and lobsters have large claws which are used to open things like clams and mussels. Restaurants like to serve fresh shell fish. If you were reading a story about people eating crab

4 While reading the history of Chicago, you would probably read a story about the great Chicago fire which happened

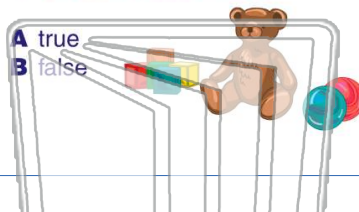

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ of the drive should be able to buy toys for at least 1,000 children.

A true
B false

white cloud of snow coming from under his skis. What would you expect to read about in this book?

A what a person who makes skis does
B where skiers go off season
C why old people don't ski
D how to make sharp turns on skis

9 Flamingoes are wading birds with feathers that have a pink tinge. When they are fed carrot juice, their feathers become even more pink. If a wildlife refuge in Florida wanted to show flamingoes and fed them carrots, what would you expect to see?

A birds in cages C lots of alligators sunning
B pink feathers D gray feathers

10 On the cover of the novel Holes, by Louis Sachar, there is a picture of sad-looking boys in the desert with shovels. What do you predict this novel is about?

A boys who are mining for gold
B a boy's summer camp adventure
C boys whose punishment is digging holes
D how to get rid of gophers that dig holes

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 At one time, Mark Twain worked on a paddle wheeler sailing up and down the Mississippi River. Many of his stories take place near a river. He grew up near the Mississippi. In his biography, you would not expect to read about _____

A why Mark Twain wrote Tom Sawyer
B how Mark Twain bought a river boat
C where Mark Twain grew up
D how Mark Twain hated rivers

2 Every Saturday night, Tanisha babysits for her aunt. Her aunt and uncle play bingo at their church. Tanisha wants to go to a party next Saturday night. What will Tanisha's aunt do on Saturday?

A go to the party with Tanisha
B take Tanisha to Bingo
C find another niece to babysit
D make Tanisha's uncle babysit

3 Crabs and lobsters have large claws which are used to open things like clams and mussels. Restaurants like to serve fresh shell fish. If you were reading a story about people eating crab

4 While reading the history of Chicago, you would probably read a story about the great Chicago fire which happened

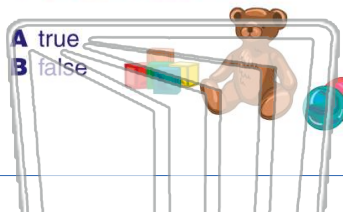

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ of the drive should be able to buy toys for at least 1,000 children.

white cloud of snow coming from under his skis. What would you expect to read about in this book?

A what a person who makes skis does
B where skiers go off season
C why old people don't ski
D how to make sharp turns on skis

9 Flamingoes are wading birds with feathers that have a pink tinge. When they are fed carrot juice, their feathers become even more pink. If a wildlife refuge in Florida wanted to show flamingoes and fed them carrots, what would you expect to see?

10 On the cover of the novel Holes, by Louis Sachar, there is a picture of sad-looking boys in the desert with shovels. What do you predict this novel is about?

A boys who are mining for gold
B a boy's summer camp adventure
C boys whose punishment is digging holes
D how to get rid of gophers that dig holes

