

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which is not a use of a caption?

- A helps the reader know what section he/she is reading next
- B helps the reader understand a map or chart
- C helps explain a photograph
- D helps make an illustration clearer

2 If a person wanted to find out how many ancient civilizations were going to be presented in a text, he/she would look:

- A through all the headings
- B in the index.
- C in the table of contents.
- D at the title.

3 If a person wanted to see all the places condensation is mentioned, he/she would look _____.

4 If a person wanted to get an idea of how long the section about hurricanes is going to be, he/she could:

5 PREVIEW
Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 A a math book
B headings in a book about medieval times
C captions in a book about medieval times
D the glossary in a book about medieval times

Headings are also what they give one an overview of what he/she is about to read.

- A true
- B false

9 Headings and captions are alike because:

- A they are both located above or beneath a diagram or photograph.
- B they help you find the page numbers.
- C they help make some topics clearer.
- D they are located in the beginning of each chapter.

10 Titles explain fully what you are about to read.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which is not a use of a caption?

A helps the reader know what section he/she is reading next
 B helps the reader understand a map or chart
 C helps explain a photograph
 D helps make an illustration clearer

2 If a person wanted to find out how many ancient civilizations were going to be presented in a text, he/she would look:

A through all the headings.
 B in the index.
 C in the table of contents.
 D at the title.

3 If a person wanted to see all the places condensation is mentioned, he/she would look _____.

4 If a person wanted to get an idea of how long the section about hurricanes is going to be, he/she could: _____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A a math book
 B headings in a book about medieval times
 C captions in a book about medieval times
 D the glossary in a book about medieval times

Headings are also what they give one an overview of what he/she is about to read.

A true
 B false

9 Headings and captions are alike because.

A they are both located above or beneath a diagram or photograph.
 B they help you find the page numbers.
 C they help make some topics clearer.
 D they are located in the beginning of each chapter.

10 Titles explain fully what you are about to read.

A true
 B false

