

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Writing a book review highly recommending a book to a friend is writing to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D narrate

2 Shirley wrote about the emotions she felt when she saw her baby sister for the first time. She wrote to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D explain how to do something

3 Which genre is most likely to be written in the narrative form?

4 Poetry is likely to contain which form of writing?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 hoping to convince the owner to give him a free dinner. He was writing to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D narrate

8 _____ She was writing to express feelings.

- A true
- B false

9 Since Alex had never been to Rome, when Judy was there she made an effort to _____ all the sights and sounds to him so he could get a picture of it in his mind.

- A describe
- B express feelings about
- C persuade him about
- D explain

10 Instead of trying to argue with her mother, Janice wrote a note giving all the reasons she should have a friend spend the night. Janice was writing for the purpose of persuading.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Writing a book review highly recommending a book to a friend is writing to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D narrate

2 Shirley wrote about the emotions she felt when she saw her baby sister for the first time. She wrote to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D explain how to do something

3 Which genre is most likely to be written in the narrative form?

4 Poetry is likely to contain which form of writing?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 hoping to convince the owner to give him a free dinner. He was writing to _____.

- A describe
- B express feelings
- C persuade
- D narrate

8 _____ She was writing to express feelings.

- A true
- B false

9 Since Alex had never been to Rome, when Judy was there she made an effort to _____ all the sights and sounds to him so he could get a picture of it in his mind.

- A describe
- B express feelings about
- C persuade him about
- D explain

10 Instead of trying to argue with her mother, Janice wrote a note giving all the reasons she should have a friend spend the night. Janice was writing for the purpose of persuading.

- A true
- B false