

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Signal, or transitional words, can help you with sequencing.

2 Which of the following words is a transitional word?

- A them
- B they're
- C then
- D that

3 Signal words, or transitional words, are alliterations.

4 Which of the following is not a transitional phrase?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- 7
- A an example is about to be described
 - B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
 - C a sequence of events is being described
 - D a cause and effect is being described

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

9 The phrase for instance signals the reader that _____.

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

10 The word yesterday signals the reader that _____.

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Signal, or transitional words, can help you with sequencing.

2 Which of the following words is a transitional word?

- A them
- B they're
- C then
- D that

3 Signal words, or transitional words, are alliterations.

4 Which of the following is not a transitional phrase?

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

9 The phrase for instance signals the reader that _____.

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described

10 The word yesterday signals the reader that _____.

- A an example is about to be described
- B a contrasting statement is about to be stated
- C a sequence of events is being described
- D a cause and effect is being described