

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A popular singer made several albums that everyone liked. When she decided to change the way she sang, no one liked her new sound. The CD didn't sell very well and she chose to go back to her original songs. Her fans were very happy. What is a summary for this story?

A Singers won't make money if they change.
 B Fans like all kinds of music.
 C Singers who change may disappoint fans.
 D Fans tell their friends about good CDs.

2 "The best team won the tournament" would be an excellent summary for a newspaper article about a winning team who had acquired a number of very skilled players.

A true
 B false

3 An encyclopedia article about the invention of the airplane might be summarized by saying, "Everyone

4 Whenever a new movie comes out, there are advertisements to tempt moviegoers. The summaries they offer make people want to go see the newest hits. Why do the summaries

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 A the fuzzy bunnies will be available soon
B the battle continues in a new world
C a family went on vacation in an RV
D the stars go to battle over who is best

close to the sun, Mercury is very hot. People could not live there. What would a good summary of this piece be?

A The Earth and Mercury have a lot in common.
 B Mercury could be explored by the shuttle.
 C The planet Mercury is small and very hot.
 D Mercury is closest to the Sun.

9 "Smoking is not good for your health and can hurt other people" might be the summary for a report on _____.

A health
 B drugs
 C vitamins
 D smoking

10 The last sentence in an article about wolves was the summary. It read, "Wolves are beautiful animals that are scary to most human beings, but wolves have much to teach us." The author of this article likes wolves and wants to see them saved.

A true B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A popular singer made several albums that everyone liked. When she decided to change the way she sang, no one liked her new sound. The CD didn't sell very well and she chose to go back to her original songs. Her fans were very happy. What is a summary for this story?

A Singers won't make money if they change.
 B Fans like all kinds of music.
 C Singers who change may disappoint fans.
 D Fans tell their friends about good CDs.

2 "The best team won the tournament" would be an excellent summary for a newspaper article about a winning team who had acquired a number of very skilled players.

A true
 B false

3 An encyclopedia article about the invention of the airplane might be summarized by saying, "Everyone

4 Whenever a new movie comes out, there are advertisements to tempt moviegoers. The summaries they offer make people want to go see the newest hits. Why do the summaries

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 A the fuzzy bunnies will be available soon
B the battle continues in a new world
C a family went on vacation in an RV
D the stars go to battle over who is best

close to the sun, Mercury is very hot. People could not live there. What would a good summary of this piece be?

A The Earth and Mercury have a lot in common.
 B Mercury could be explored by the shuttle.
 C The planet Mercury is small and very hot.
 D Mercury is closest to the Sun.

9 "Smoking is not good for your health and can hurt other people" might be the summary for a report on _____.

A health
 B drugs
 C vitamins
 D smoking

10 The last sentence in an article about wolves was the summary. It read, "Wolves are beautiful animals that are scary to most human beings, but wolves have much to teach us." The author of this article likes wolves and wants to see them saved.

A true
 B false