

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What reading skill involves looking at a written piece from two different angles?

- A drawing conclusions
- B making an inference
- C comparing and contrasting
- D evaluating sources

2 When a reader makes a judgment based on the writer's description, he/she is evaluating.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

3 When the reader is involved in and responding to the text, he/she is practicing _____ reading.

4 Using a(n) _____ to mark the text is an active reading strategy.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ an active reading strategy.
True or false?

- A true
- B false

_____ subject, or _____, of each paragraph.

- A last word
- B topic
- C first word
- D topping

9 A successful reader picks out the topic of each paragraph, then looks for the _____.

- A footnotes
- B genre
- C main idea
- D character

10 A successful reader picks out the sentences that support the main idea of a paragraph. These sentences are called the supporting details.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What reading skill involves looking at a written piece from two different angles?

- A drawing conclusions
- B making an inference
- C comparing and contrasting
- D evaluating sources

2 When a reader makes a judgment based on the writer's description, he/she is evaluating.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

3 When the reader is involved in and responding to the text, he/she is practicing _____ reading.

4 Using a(n) _____ to mark the text is an active reading strategy.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ an active reading strategy.
True or false?

- A true
- B false

_____ subject, or _____, of each paragraph.

- A last word
- B topic
- C first word
- D topping

9 A successful reader picks out the topic of each paragraph, then looks for the _____.

- A footnotes
- B genre
- C main idea
- D character

10 A successful reader picks out the sentences that support the main idea of a paragraph. These sentences are called the supporting details.

True or false?

- A true
- B false