

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

- A friendly
- B ask
- C for
- D jumped

2 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

- A so
- B word
- C read
- D can

3 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

4 Choose the appropriate coordinating conjunction to join these simple sentences into a compound sentence.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Choose the coordinating conjunction to join these simple sentences into a compound sentence.

I would like to study Spanish, _____ French sounds interesting, too.

- A if
- B or
- C yet
- D because

8 Choose the type of clause that these sentences are also known as.

- A phrases
- B clauses
- C words
- D predicates

9 Choose the independent clause in this compound sentence.

Nathan ordered a hamburger, and Matthew chose a cheeseburger.

- A Nathan ordered
- B Nathan ordered a hamburger
- C and Matthew chose
- D hamburger, and Matthew chose a

10 Choose the independent clause in this compound sentence.

Maria did not go to cheerleading practice, for she was feeling ill.

- A Maria did not go to
- B to cheerleading practice
- C did not go to cheerleading practice
- D she was feeling ill

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

- A friendly
- B ask
- C for
- D jumped

2 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

- A so
- B word
- C read
- D can

3 Choose the coordinating conjunction that joins simple sentences together into a compound sentence.

4 Choose the appropriate coordinating conjunction to join these simple sentences into a compound sentence.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Choose the coordinating conjunction to join these simple sentences into a compound sentence.

I would like to study Spanish, _____ French sounds interesting, too.

- A if
- B or
- C yet
- D because

8 Choose the type of clause that these sentences are also known as.

- A phrases
- B clauses
- C words
- D predicates

9 Choose the independent clause in this compound sentence.

Nathan ordered a hamburger, and Matthew chose a cheeseburger.

- A Nathan ordered
- B Nathan ordered a hamburger
- C and Matthew chose
- D hamburger, and Matthew chose a

10 Choose the independent clause in this compound sentence.

Maria did not go to cheerleading practice, for she was feeling ill.

- A Maria did not go to
- B to cheerleading practice
- C did not go to cheerleading practice
- D she was feeling ill