Odd/Even Numbers

Math

Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 John has 5 baseballs and 12 tennis balls. Can he divide the balls equally into two baskets?

A   yes
B   no

2 There are 24 students in the class. Can the teacher divide the students into two equal groups?

A   yes
B   no

3 Which number is not even?

A   24
B   376

4 Mrs. Smith has 22 students in her class, Mr. Mark has 23 students, Miss Trump has 21 students, and Mr. Jones has 25 students. Which class

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

C   3 hundreds, 6 tens
D   7 hundreds, 5 ones

A   YES   B   NO

9 There are four thousand, two hundred and sixty-five people at a concert. Is that an even or odd number?

A   ODD   B   EVEN

10 Complete the pattern.

14, 16, 18, ____

Is the next number even or odd?

A   ODD   B   EVEN

Math

Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 John has 5 baseballs and 12 tennis balls. Can he divide the balls equally into two baskets?

A yes
B no

(B)

2 There are 24 students in the class. Can the teacher divide the students into two equal groups?

A yes
B no

(A)

3 Which number is not even?

A 24
B 376

(C)

4 Mrs. Smith has 22 students in her class, Mr. Mark has 23 students, Miss Trump has 21 students, and Mr. Jones has 25 students. Which class

(A)

5

(A)

7

C 3 hundreds, 6 tens
D 7 hundreds, 5 ones

A YES   B NO

(A)

9 There are four thousand, two hundred and sixty-five people at a concert. Is that an even or odd number?

A ODD   B EVEN

(A)

10 Complete the pattern.

14, 16, 18, ___

Is the next number even or odd?

A ODD   B EVEN

(B)