

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What could you stand near to feel heat?

- A a mailbox
- B a desk
- C a campfire
- D a freezer

2 Fires create heat. You should never stand too close or touch a fire.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

3 When you rub your hands together, what kind of energy are you making?

4 Which is an example of how we use energy at home?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A a metal spoon
- B a wooden spoon
- C a t-shirt
- D a paper cup

- A wood
- B metal
- C wool
- D cotton

9 Some objects do not conduct heat very well. _____ does not conduct heat very well.

- A A metal wire
- B A metal cup
- C A metal spoon
- D Wood

10 The heat in hot chocolate can move through the cup it is in. Which kind of cup would be best to use so that you do not burn your hand?

- A a Styrofoam® cup
- B a metal cup
- C a tinfoil cup
- D a paper cup

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What could you stand near to feel heat?

- A a mailbox
- B a desk
- C a campfire
- D a freezer

2 Fires create heat. You should never stand too close or touch a fire.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

3 When you rub your hands together, what kind of energy are you making?

4 Which is an example of how we use energy at home?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

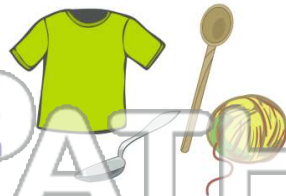

5

7

- A a metal spoon
- B a wooden spoon
- C a t-shirt
- D a paper cup

- A wood
- B metal
- C wool
- D cotton

9 Some objects do not conduct heat very well. _____ does not conduct heat very well.

- A A metal wire
- B A metal cup
- C A metal spoon
- D Wood

10 The heat in hot chocolate can move through the cup it is in. Which kind of cup would be best to use so that you do not burn your hand?

- A a Styrofoam® cup
- B a metal cup
- C a tinfoil cup
- D a paper cup

