Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 Animals are consumers. What are consumers?

A animals that make their own water
B living things that eat other living things
C living things that make their own food
D nonliving things that need to find food

2 What is one way animals help plants?

A They break plant's stems.
B They step on plants.
C They eat plants.
D They help spread seeds of plants.

3 What special gas do plants give off that is needed by animals?

4 What special gas do humans breathe out that is needed by plants?
5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 animals: A peacock _____ when danger is near.

A makes a loud noise
B yells help
C hides in the water
D pecks other birds

deer does to warn other deer when danger is near. What body part does a deer use to warn others of danger?

A horns
B tail
C legs
D mouth

9 Many animals stay in _____ or groups in order to protect themselves.

A herds
B nests
C trees
D caves

10 What do prairie dogs do to warn each other of danger?

A change fur color
B show teeth
C bark
D fly away

Name_____ Class_____ Date_____

1 Animals are consumers. What are consumers?

A animals that make their own water
B living things that eat other living things
C living things that make their own food
D nonliving things that need to find food

B

2 What is one way animals help plants?

A They break plant's stems.
B They step on plants.
C They eat plants.
D They help spread seeds of plants.

D

3 What special gas do plants give off that is needed by animals?

4 What special gas do humans breathe out that is needed by plants?
B

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

D

7 animals: A peacock _____ when danger is near.

A makes a loud noise
B yells help
C hides in the water
D pecks other birds

A

deer does to warn other deer when danger is near. What body part does a deer use to warn others of danger?

A horns
B tail
C legs
D mouth

B

9 Many animals stay in _____ or groups in order to protect themselves.

A herds
B nests
C trees
D caves

A

10 What do prairie dogs do to warn each other of danger?

A change fur color
B show teeth
C bark
D fly away

C