

Reptiles, Amphibians & Fish

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Where are reptiles born? Circle the correct answer.

- on land
- in water
- in the ocean
- in a tree

6 Amphibians live part of their life in water, and part on land. Which animal below is an amphibian? Circle it.

2 Reptiles are _____, which means their body temperature changes with the temperature of their surroundings. If they get too warm, they need to go into the water or into shade to cool off.

7 What do fish use to breathe? They help fish get oxygen from the water.

3 Reptiles is a repti_____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4 Reptiles _____ amphibians lay their eggs in _____

9 What fish body part is the arrow pointing to?

5 Amphibians begin their life in water with _____ for breathing.

10 Most reptiles and amphibians can swim in water and live on land.

True or false? Circle the correct answer.

True

False

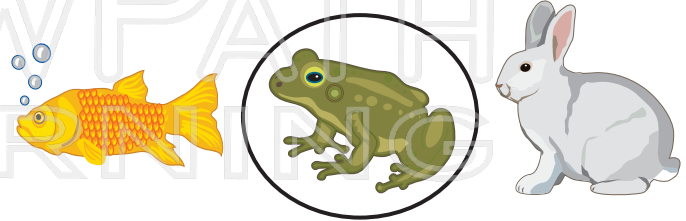

Reptiles, Amphibians & Fish - Answer Key

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Where are reptiles born? Circle the correct answer.

- on land
- in water
- in the ocean
- in a tree

6 Amphibians live part of their life in water, and part on land. Which animal below is an amphibian? Circle it.

2 Reptiles are _____ warm-blooded _____, which means their body temperature changes with the temperature of their surroundings. If they get too warm, they need to go into the water or into shade to cool off.

7 What do fish use to breathe? They help fish get oxygen from the water.

3 Reptiles is a repti_____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

4 Reptiles _____ amphibians lay their eggs in _____ water _____.

9 What fish body part is the arrow pointing to?

5 Amphibians begin their life in water with _____ gills _____ for breathing.

10 Most reptiles and amphibians can swim in water and live on land. True or false? Circle the correct answer.

True

False