

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Animals go to different places to get what they need to survive. Where do plants go to get what they need to survive?

- A Plants usually stay in the same place.
- B All plants depend on humans to survive.
- C Plants need only sunshine to survive.
- D All plants go other places.

2 As the weather gets colder, you see a group of geese flying south to an area with a warmer climate. Geese are examples of birds that _____.

- A populate
- B investigate
- C migrate
- D hibernate

3 For a garden in your yard, what is important to observe before picking out the type of plants to plant?

4 Many birds build a nest in a tree and fly down to a puddle to take a drink. What does this show you about what living things need to survive?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 say that the air pressure will be high for the day. What does high air pressure mean for the day's weather?

- A It will be sunny.
- B It will be very cloudy.
- C It will be rainy.
- D It will rain most of the day.

area. What does that mean?

- A A severe thunderstorm happened your area yesterday.
- B A severe thunderstorm could happen in your area.
- C A blizzard might be coming.
- D It might rain next week.

9 While hiking, you find a mineral and scratch it with your fingernail and pieces of it fall to the ground. What property have you just identified of the mineral?

- A its hardness
- B its color
- C its luster
- D if it makes a streak on the ground

10 Your class will plant tall plants on Earth Day, but you live in an area that is always very windy. Where would be a good, protected place to plant them to protect them from wind?

- A in the middle of an open field
- B under some large rocks
- C along a wall that blocks the wind
- D near the school pond

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Animals go to different places to get what they need to survive. Where do plants go to get what they need to survive?

- A Plants usually stay in the same place.
- B All plants depend on humans to survive.
- C Plants need only sunshine to survive.
- D All plants go other places.

2 As the weather gets colder, you see a group of geese flying south to an area with a warmer climate. Geese are examples of birds that

- A populate
- B investigate
- C migrate
- D hibernate

3 For a garden in your yard, what is important to observe before picking out the type of plants to plant?

4 Many birds build a nest in a tree and fly down to a puddle to take a drink. What does this show you about what living things need to survive?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 say that the air pressure will be high for the day. What does high air pressure mean for the day's weather?

- A It will be sunny.
- B It will be very cloudy.
- C It will be rainy.
- D It will rain most of the day.

area. What does that mean?

- A A severe thunderstorm happened your area yesterday.
- B A severe thunderstorm could happen in your area.
- C A blizzard might be coming.
- D It might rain next week.

9 While hiking, you find a mineral and scratch it with your fingernail and pieces of it fall to the ground. What property have you just identified of the mineral?

- A its hardness
- B its color
- C its luster
- D if it makes a streak on the ground

10 Your class will plant tall plants on Earth Day, but you live in an area that is always very windy. Where would be a good, protected place to plant them to protect them from wind?

- A in the middle of an open field
- B under some large rocks
- C along a wall that blocks the wind
- D near the school pond

