

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Why are producers important in an ecosystem?

A They consume food.
B They produce food.
C They decompose food.
D They eat plants.

2 What is the main source of energy in an ecosystem?

A plants
B animals
C frogs
D the Sun

3 Match the term with the correct definition.

ecosystem A. a place where an organism lives; it provides food.

4 What are three things that make up a pond ecosystem?

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

of a producer.

A a tree
B a frog
C a butterfly
D a bird

8

of decomposers, plants and animals.

A producers
B consumers
C decomposers
D birds

9 What do sand, water and air all have in common?

A They are living parts of an ecosystem.
B They are nonliving parts of an ecosystem.
C They are a community.
D They are a niche.

10 A habitat can be

A a swamp
B a small pond
C a puddle
D all of the above

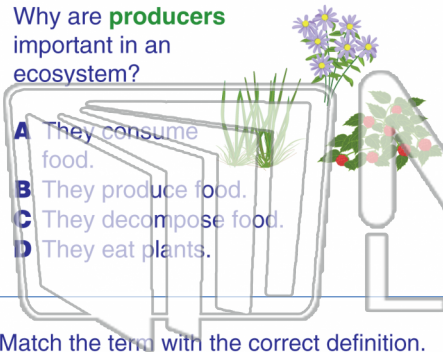

What are Ecosystems?

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

Why are producers important in an ecosystem?

- A They consume food.
- B They produce food.
- C They decompose food.
- D They eat plants.

2

What is the main source of energy in an ecosystem?

- A plants
- B animals
- C frogs
- D the Sun

3

Match the term with the correct definition.

- ecosystem A. a place where an organism lives; it provides food,

4

What are three things that make up a pond ecosystem?

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

What is a producer?

- A a tree
- B a frog
- C a butterfly
- D a bird

8

What are decomposers?

- A producers
- B consumers
- C decomposers
- D birds

9

What do sand, water and air all have in common?

- A They are living parts of an ecosystem.
- B They are nonliving parts of an ecosystem.
- C They are a community.
- D They are a niche.

10

A habitat can be

- A a swamp
- B a small pond
- C a puddle
- D all of the above

