

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Echinoderms live on the ocean floor and can only be found in what type of water?

- A saltwater
- B freshwater
- C puddles
- D boiling

2 Arthropods are the largest animal phylum. What are two characteristics of arthropods?

- A have three main body parts and no legs
- B have segmented bodies and jointed legs
- C only have four legs and two sets of wings
- D have two main body parts and wings

3 Spiders are insects. True or false?

4 Arachnids include scorpions and _____. They have an exoskeleton and four pairs of jointed legs.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 crabs and lobsters have in common?

- A both have stinging cells
- B both have six eyes
- C both have an external shell
- D both have a soft outer body

- A two main body parts and eight jointed legs
- B one main body part and six jointed legs
- C four main body parts and four jointed legs
- D three main body parts and six jointed legs

9 Coral reefs are a mass or ridge of living coral. They need sunshine and warm waters to survive. Where do coral reefs live?

- A in warm, shallow sea waters
- B in deep, cold waters
- C on dry land
- D in rivers

10 _____ provide a protective place to live for a large variety of marine life.

- A Trees
- B Coral reefs
- C Puddles
- D Clouds

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Echinoderms live on the ocean floor and can only be found in what type of water?

- A saltwater
- B freshwater
- C puddles
- D boiling

2 Arthropods are the largest animal phylum. What are two characteristics of arthropods?

- A have three main body parts and no legs
- B have segmented bodies and jointed legs
- C only have four legs and two sets of wings
- D have two main body parts and wings

3 Spiders are insects. True or false?

4 Arachnids include scorpions and _____. They have an exoskeleton and four pairs of jointed legs.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 crabs and lobsters have in common?

- A both have stinging cells
- B both have six eyes
- C both have an external shell
- D both have a soft outer body

- A two main body parts and eight jointed legs
- B one main body part and six jointed legs
- C four main body parts and four jointed legs
- D three main body parts and six jointed legs

9 Coral reefs are a mass or ridge of living coral. They need sunshine and warm waters to survive. Where do coral reefs live?

- A in warm, shallow sea waters
- B in deep, cold waters
- C on dry land
- D in rivers

10 _____ provide a protective place to live for a large variety of marine life.

- A Trees
- B Coral reefs
- C Puddles
- D Clouds

