

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What are tall tales?

- A exaggerated stories
- B biographies
- C informational books
- D science fiction

2 Where did tall tales begin?

- A Germany
- B Canada
- C United States
- D Egypt

3 All the heroes in tall tales are real people.

4 Which of these people is an important tall tale hero?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ meet experts to go along with a tall tale.

- A overcomes a great obstacle
- B is defeated
- C tells his genealogy
- D has a boring life

9 In the tale of Johnny Appleseed, he walked barefoot carrying a sack of seeds to plant along his way.

- A true
- B false

10 If the story of John Henry were written as a tall tale, it would only have facts in it.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 What are tall tales?

A exaggerated stories
 B biographies
 C informational books
 D science fiction

2 Where did tall tales begin?

A Germany
 B Canada
 C United States
 D Egypt

3 All the heroes in tall tales are real people.

4 Which of these people is an important tall tale hero?

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A overcomes a great obstacle
 B is defeated
 C tells his genealogy
 D has a boring life

8

A
 B
 C
 D

9 In the tale of Johnny Appleseed, he walked barefoot carrying a sack of seeds to plant along his way.

A true
 B false

10 If the story of John Henry were written as a tall tale, it would only have facts in it.

A true
 B false

